Stage Dresses. OME NOTEWORTHY COSTUMES WORN BY PROMI-NENT ACTRESSES OF THE DAY. [From the London Queen.]

Mr. Planche, who died last week, was the Mr. Planche, who died has week, was the inaugurator of appropriate stage dresses and decorations. Before his days Garriek and Kesn played Hamlet or Macbeth in knee-breeches and silk stockings, powdered wig, and queue. The readers of Fanny Kemble's "Records of My Girlhood" may remember bow the young actress gave some anxious thought to the dress she was to wear in Portia and Juliet, for Mr. Planche Shakspeare's plays with a regard for couleur locale in costume and background. Since those days of careless theatrical accessories there has been a revolution in the "getup" of our actors and of the stage generaily. Etlen Terry, in her golden-satin robe, walks the Lyceum boards like a figure stepped out of a picture painted by Paul Veronese. The background and every scenic detail help illusion and bring Italy before us, its every-day life, its sunshine and moonlight.

Three ladies—Mile. Sara Bernhardt at the Gaiety, Madame Modjeska at the Court Theatre, Miss Genevieve Ward at the Prince of Wales'—appear in their various rôles in a variety of modern dresses, all appropriate and beautiful. There is nothing stagey in those costumes; they are simply pleasant and tasteful garments to look at, narmonious in color, perfect in fit, always suitable for the occasions on which they are represented to be worn. The State Conservative Committee met again yesterday morning at 11 o'clock.

The report of the Committee on Organ ization was received, which, as amended, we give below : STATE CONSERVATIVE ORGANIZATION.

Resolved, That the State Central Conservative Committee, in order to "perfect the party organization" for the coming campaign, recommend the immediate organization of the voters of Virginia favorable to the success of the electoral ticket nominated aid. by the State Convention of May 19th, as follows:

STATE COMMITTEE.

There shall be a State Central Committee, composed of three members from each con-gressional district. Such members shall be nominated by the delegates to the State Convention from their respective congressional districts; provided that such nomi-nations shall be made by at least a majority of the delegates from each district and shall be confirmed by the State Convention. In Convention shall make the appointments est of the party.

The State Committee shall meet at such times and places as they may themselves determine, but especially at such time and place as the Executive Committee may designate.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

There shall be an Executive Committee, composed of five persons—three of whom shall reside in the city of Richmond—to be appointed by the State Central Committee. Such Executive Committee shall appoint its own secretary. This, the Executive Committee, shall have no power to originate ony measure. It shall be their express and single duty to execute and carry out the plans of the State Committee as the same shall from time to time be laid down by that committee, under whose authority it shall act, and to whose revision all the acts of this Executive Committee shall be sub-

3. Where no organization prepared to labor for our ticket exists the members of the Central Committee from the congressional district wherein the county has shall appoint a county chairman, who shall at once organize a committee by an election in the county at a public meeting to be held at the earliest ommittee to consist, as now, of two members from each magisterial district.

4. County committees not already sup plied with such officers shall immediately upon their formation proceed to the elec-tion of a secretary and treasurer.

5. County and city committees shall forth with appoint precinct committees, consisting of five active, working Conservative Democrats from each voting-precinct. Such precinct committees shall prepare lists of all the white voters in their respective voting-precincts, ascertaining and recording the political proclivities of each voter, which list shall be furnished, when completed, to the county or city secretary, and by him recorded in a book, whereupon the originals shall be returned to the precinct committee. The precinct committee shall visit every voter prior to an election, shall see to the tion of registration and transfers, shall furnish the voter all necessary information to that end, and shall be charged with the duty of procuring his vote to be properly east When in the judgement of the precinct committee their number should be increased, they may enlarge it by their own appointment. They shall elect a chairman, secretary, and treasurer.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION. 6. The members of the State Central Committee, residing in the several congressional districts, shall constitute the district committees, who shall have power to call district conventions, fix the times and places for holding the same, the number of delegates, and prescribe the mode and manner of appointing them, and shall lius Jackson had one of all the hogshead of tobacco on a dray. The Excursion to Chester. Quite a large party went off yesterday on the excursion of the Methodist Sunday school to Chester. The day was very pleasantly spent, and the party returned to the city about 8 o'clock.

The Lyceum Pic-Nic.—The annual picnic and summer soirée of the J. H. S. Lyceum took place yesterday at the Richmond pump-house. Warner Allen's fine string band furnished the music. The dinner, gotten up under the supervision of the Ladies' Committee, was excellent and bountiful. Richmond and Manchester each contributed of its beauty, and the day was one long to be pleasantly remembered. The Committee of Arrangements—Messis, Arthur McCrone, James L. Rogers, and S. R.
